NEWPORT BEACH

AMANDA FELD works for Newport Beach tourist board in California.

START THE DAY: With a walk or run along the beach. Newport has ten miles of coastline for surfing or swimming.

SEE THIS FIRST: Balboa Village. It's real old-school fun. There's a pier, a Ferris wheel, lots of places to eat and an arcade with lots of vintage games.

BUT DON'T MISS: Crystal Cove State Park. It's three-and-a-half miles of pristine, uninterrupted coastline, with the most exclusive cottages on the beach available to rent.

MUST TRY: Cruising around Newport harbour in a Duffy boat.

MUST BUY: A Balboa bar and a frozen banana. They've been keeping locals happy for nearly 75 years.

LOCALS DO: Shop at Fashion Island. Not a real island but fashionable.

LOCALS DON'T: Want you to know about these secrets. They like to keep the good stuff for themselves.
